

Your neighbor is very upset after the earthquake and doesn't want to go inside their house. The chimney has fallen and there is a lot of broken items in the house. She and her husband are both fine.

Do you call it in? Is there anything you and your neighbors can do to help?

A neighbor is having trouble figuring out her medications. Her care provider isn't able to come see her today because of the earthquake. She's asking someone to help her figure out what to take.

Do you call it in?

Is there anything you and your neighbors can do to help?

As you walk to the corner, you notice a large sinkhole has appeared on one side of the road. Many cars are impacted, traffic is stopped and there are many frantic and terrified drivers still inside their vehicles.

Do you call it in?

Is there anything you and your neighbors can do to help?

WAIT AT LEAST 10 MINUTES after your initial report and then, radio in an update that all drivers are not out of their vehicles and safe.