

When you arrive at the house of this bedridden neighbor, she tells you that she has some food for the next two days but that with the widespread power outage her regular caregiver might not be able to come for a few days.

Do you call this in?

Is there any thing you or your neighbors can do to help?

The earthquake caused a massive break in Palo Alto's sewer system. There is no sanitation. Worried neighbors want to know how soon it will get fixed and what to do in the meantime.

Do you call it in?

Is there anything you and your neighbors can do to help?

Tip: After the 2011 Christchurch earthquake some homes were without working toilets for weeks or months. Check out Palo Alto Neighborhoods page on sanitation and scroll down to Household Toilets.

A vehicle has hit a tree on your street. A man is slumped inside and is unresponsive. The doors are locked. You notice a strong smell of fuel.

Do you call this in?

What can you or your neighbors do to help?