

Blind neighbor says he doesn't feel safe in his house and asks if you can help him evacuate to a shelter.

Do you call this in?

Can you or your neighbors help?

Mr. Shafer says that he has lumber and a chain saw if they are needed. BUT his gate is padlocked and he can't find the spare key. He asks if you have or could get him a bolt cutter or hacksaw. None of your neighbors have these tools.

What other ways could you get tools for Mr. Shafer? Do you call this in?

As you near the address you see a large tree has fallen tree. A person is pinned underneath. They are calling for help. The tree is stable and is not blocking the street. It is safe to approach.

Do you call this in? Is there any thing you or your neighbors could do?